VolTra

Who we are:

Founded on 16 April 2009, VolTra is a non-governmental and non-profit voluntary organization, which is dedicated to promote international voluntary services in Hong Kong, China through a well-established worldwide network of international workcamp organizations.

VolTra is the first and exclusive workcamp organization in Hong Kong to provide workcamp placement service for people living in Hong Kong, Macau and Mainland China and to organize international workcamps in Hong Kong for both local and overseas volunteers. Our vision is to enhance global citizenship and friendship as well as to strengthen solidarity of the local communities through international voluntary services.

VolTra has been the Members of the Network for Voluntary Development in Asia (NVDA) and Coordinating Committee for International Voluntary Service (CCIVS) since 2010, and become the Partner of Alliance since 2011.

What we do:

Since the establishment of VolTra in April 2009, we have organized 11 international workcamps in Hong Kong. Some general information about our workcamps are set out as below:

Age limit: Anyone who is at least 18 years old can apply for VolTra's international workcamps. There is no age upper limit.

Language: English is usually the common language in most workcamps. You do not need to speak fluent English, but more importantly you should try to communicate with others. You are also welcome to try to learn and speak some Cantonese/Mandarin.

Physical Fitness: There is no requirement on physical fitness. However, you need to consider your physical limitation when participating in our projects with intensive manual and labour work.
