

SOLIDARITES JEUNESSES IS LOOKING FOR A VOLUNTEER

VOLUNTEERING PROMOTION THROUGH DIGITAL COMMUNICATION AND GRAPHIC DESIGN

Solidarités Jeunesses is a french youth, non-formal education and community development association. It organises short and long-term international workcamps, actions of social integration, training activities, international solidarity actions and runs small community centres in rural environments.

Through these actions Solidarités Jeunesses aims to promote:

- The voluntary participation of all, particularly young people and those in socially disadvantaged situations, in local, national and international life.
- Local development that takes into concern the needs of the individual, the environment and the cultural heritage.
- The breaking down of barriers between generations, cultures and nations.
- A concrete construction of peace through intercultural exchanges and reciprocity.

Solidarités Jeunesses has a national office in Paris and 8 regional associations.

They bring together people - young and old, local representatives, social workers - who want to put in common their aspirations for a harmonious development of their region and who would like to find, within a national and international movement, an opening, a richness, exchanges, and reflections.

Solidarités Jeunesses is cooperating internationally with volunteering networks : Coordinating Committee for International Voluntary Service and the Alliance of European Voluntary Service Organisations.
