ADVIT

Who we are:

ADVIT stands for Association for Development, Voluntary Service and Information for Youth. "Without borders" means "no boundaries" and also "without limits". ADVIT is a non-political, non-profit, non-governmental organization, started by and for young people, to involve Moldovan young people, with and without professional experience, into programmes at national and international levels in the fields of education, culture, ecology, historical heritage protection and helping disadvantaged people, by contributing to the development of a more peaceful society, to the decrease of social injustice. ADVIT started as an initiative in 2002 by organizing week end work camps, involving youth with disadvantage background and international volunteers. In 2004 ADVIT was officially registered by Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Moldova and was acknowledged as non-profit in January of 2007.

I

What we do:

ADVIT Moldova organizes and sends people to work camps. This is a unique chance to combine travelling and meeting new people with community development. When you share your skills and knowledge you also make a difference. The work camps last from a few days up till 21 days and you can participate in environmental, social, cultural, renovation and restoration projects.
