

Who we are:

Les Amis de la Terre-Togo (ADT) is a non-profit, voluntary organization working to protect the environment in Togo and in the world; it also promote volunteerism, international youth exchange and sustainable development. The organization was founded on 20 June 1990.

What we do:

The work camps are a very effective training method. Les Amis de la Terre-Togo organizes work camps in different parts of Togo, with the participation of young people from Togo and from abroad. The aim of this activity is to promote the idea of voluntary work in order to support local development and to meet the needs of environment protection and sustainable development. In these projects Les Amis de la Terre-Togo co-operates closely with local authorities and youth groups.

Who we are: Frères Agriculteurs et Artisans pour le Développement (FAGAD) is an organisation founded in 1990. Between 1986 and 1990, activities began as a farming group called Groupement Agricole Togolaise against Hunger (GATOCOF). The idea of this organization is to bring together the producers and help them organize in order to improve their living conditions. This is the origin of Frères Agriculteurs et Artisans pour le Développement (FAGAD), an organization with multiple objectives and activities focused on development and cultural exchange.

What we do: Many young educated understood the need to provide support to the development of their communities or through their participation in community service, either through their participation in international youth work camps organized by FAGAD (construction of local public interest, cleaning rivers, reforestation -forestation, road construction, water supply, education and leisure children, supporting solar, sports, etc..)
