

European Solidarity Corps volunteering at SPORTUNION

What is SPORTUNION?

SPORTUNION is an Austrian national sports-for-all umbrella organization with more than 670.000 members in more than 4.400 sports clubs in Austria. Our mission is to support our members to provide access to and inclusion in sports and health-enhancing activities to members of society. We believe in conveying ethical values and tolerance through sports and cultural activities. Values such as fair play, intercultural understanding, a moral tenor towards ethical correctness in sports, teamwork and personal development through sports are central themes which we address. Our headquarter is located right in the city centre of Vienna. The administrative office of FICEP (Fédération Internationale Catholique d'Education Physique et sportive) is located in the SPORTUNION headquarter in Vienna. We want to share our experiences and knowledge in the field of sports especially on national level. We are interested in new ideas which you may bring to our organization.
